

Library Scavenger Hunt

for Couples or Friends

Each person
take a scavenger hunt sheet!
Check off the
tasks as you go.

Head to the children's section. Pick out your favorite childhood book and tell your partner what you love most about it!

Pick out a book that you were forced to read in high school. Rant to your partner about why you hated it!

Take a trip to the recipe books! Find a recipe for your partner's favorite food!

Find a book you've read that has been turned into a movie. Which was one was better - the book or the movie? Discuss.

Find a book that has changed your life - in a big or small way.

Find the poetry section. Select a poem that reminds you of your partner!

Let's take a trip! Find the travel books and pick out a place and an activity that you'd like to do together.

Here's a tricky task: find a book that has your first or last name in the title. (Can't find one? Look for one that has your age instead.)

Take a glance through the magazines - and pick out a picture that shows something you'd like in your dream home or car!

Select a book that you think your partner would enjoy!

All finished?
Show your completed sheet
at the main desk
for a prize!
